BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

Philip S. Goldberg, former U.S. Ambassador to Bolivia, is a career member of the U.S. Senior Foreign Service and an expert in Latin American affairs. He recently left Bolivia in September of this year. Prior to arriving in Bolivia, he served as Chief of Mission in Pristina, Kosovo (2004-2006) and as Deputy Chief of Mission at the U.S. Embassy in Santiago, Chile (2001-2004). From January-June 2001 he served as acting Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Legislative Affairs. He came to that position after having been a senior member of the State Department team handling the transition from the Clinton to Bush Administrations. He has also served as Special Assistant (1996-1998) and then Executive Assistant (1998-2000) to the Deputy Secretary of State. From 1994-1996 Ambassador Goldberg was the Department's Bosnia Desk Officer and a Special Assistant to Ambassador Richard Holbrooke. In the latter capacity, he was a member of the American negotiating team in the lead-up to the Dayton Peace Conference and Chief of Staff for the American Delegation at Dayton. Ambassador Goldberg has also served overseas as a consular and political officer at the U.S. Embassy in Bogotá, Colombia, and political-economic officer in Pretoria, South Africa. Before joining the Foreign Service, he worked for several years as a liaison officer between the City of New York and the United Nations and consular community. Mr. Goldberg is a native of Boston, Massachusetts, and a graduate of Boston University.
